Teaching English Survival Game

10.

What's your number one tip for a new teacher?

9.

A teacher is off sick. You have to cover the lesson. Go back one square. 8.

You have to cover a lesson in 30 minutes' time. What's one thing you need to know?

7.

Your colleague needs some more ideas for lessons. Recommend a resource book.

11

How could you adapt this game for your students?

The Teaching English Survival Game!

6.

Suggest a strategy to cut planning time on a course.

12.

Suggest a way to continue your development as a teacher after this course. How to survive your first teaching job

5.

Your timetable changes at the last minute. Go back a square.

FINISH

Ask the other players a question about teaching.

Instructions:

- 1. Place your counters on START.
- 2. Toss a coin. For heads move two squares. For tails move one square.
- 3. Move your counter and follow the directions on the square.

4.

You're told to choose your own coursebook. Suggest one thing you would look for in a suitable coursebook.

START

1.

What's one question you would ask at a job interview about a new teaching job? 2.

The DoS shows you the teacher's room. Ask a question about resources. 3.

Suggest a classroom activity you would use on day one with a new class.